<input type="checkbox"/>	Optional: Please tick the box if you wish to be added to our mailing list for information on forthcoming events. You may unsubscribe at any time.
IMPORTANT NOTES: The club undertakes a risk assessment to minimise any dangers, but ultimately competitors take part in the event at their own risk. For example, in urban events competitors should be mindful of traffic. Non-members are always welcome to take part, but we would encourage you to join FVO or another local orienteering club once you have taken part in three or more events. It is cost effective.
